Scientific Studies Association

Creating new ideas through the accumulation of the tradition...

The Scientific Studies Association (ILEM) believes in the necessity of reconsidering the nature and purpose of academic studies and has organized various programs in accordance with this vision for twenty years.

Having an important place in the field of academic studies in Turkey, ILEM has been a substantial institution for hundreds of students with its education programs that has been carried out for twenty years. ILEM has brought together hundreds of academics by its specialization studies, and made a considerable contribution to Turkey's academy. Additionally, through its projects and academic publications, ILEM has played an important role in terms of production of intellectual knowledge in Turkey.

ILEM has also aimed to ensure the circulation of information and ideas in the global scale and has made an effort to enable the discussion of the intellectual productions, thus has beared the aim to globalize its academic effort.

Abdulkadir Macit
Chairman of the Board
ILEM

The organizations such as the International ILEM Summer School (IISS), International Students Social Sciences Congress, ILEM Istanbul Talks, Language Acts and Worldmaking and the STT-Mena projects, symposiums that bear the titles of "Political Climate in the Muslim World", "Beyond Eurocentrism Workshop", "Debates on Civilization Understandings" and the Nazariyat Magazine which is published bilingually have been the cornerstones of this effort. Having a reach at the academic knowledge became the main aim of the abovementioned projects and events.

We hope to make Istanbul and Turkey the center of negotiation and discussion of ideas that vary.
